Re: Lesson Book PRICES!!!

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Just a few days ago I sent home a letter concerning lesson books this year. It was brought to my attention that prices were not included on the order form. I sincerely apologize for the confusion. Attached to this letter is an updated order form with prices. I am extending the payment due date to Friday, September 5th. Please remember that students who already have Essential Elements: Book One DO NOT need to purchase a book. All 7th and 8th grade wind players will most likely need to purchase the Essential Elements: Book Two for their respective instrument, as we have never used the series before.

If your student is a percussionist and does not have the Alfred Drum Method: Book One, it must be purchased. They WILL NOT use their Essential Elements books from last year. Should you have any questions or concerns, please contact me. Again, please make all checks out to MMS Band.

Thank you,

Nicholas Williams
